PAST EVENTS:

Dealer's Night!

Oh, what a night! Jay Leslie took the night off from taking pictures to sell his wares. Seven magical dealers showcased their products to a room full of curious members. Trendy as well as classical items were presented. Then the shopping began!! Deals and steals, I say! Gimmick coins, gimmick cards, gizmos, gadgets, bubbles and baubles. I know I bought quite a few things!!

Happy Halloween

CITRUS CARNY

TRICK: The magician holds a lemon up to his head and predicts how many sections are inside the fruit. Once it is cut open by the spectator the magician is always correct.

SECRET: Before presenting this little miracle, slyly remove the small piece of stem that connects the fruit to the tree (Fig. 1). Count the tiny white dots under this brown nub and this number will tell you how many sections the fruit is divided into.

When your audience inquires as to the method just say something like, "It's just a skill I learned while working on a farm. Before working as a farmer I had an odd job as an elevator operator. That job had its ups and downs."
